(c) Since the ISC is neither an employee nor agent of the Government, any findings, recommendations, analyses, or conclusions of such a contractor are not those of the Government.

(d) The prime contractor acknowledges that the Government has the right to use ISCs as stated in paragraph (a) above. It is possible that under such an arrangement the ISC may require access to or the use of information (other than restricted cost or pricing data), which is proprietary to the prime contractor.

(e) To protect any such proprietary information from disclosure or use, and to establish the respective rights and duties of both the ISC and prime contractor, the prime contractor agrees to enter into a direct agreement with any ISC as the Government requires. A properly executed copy (per FAR 9.505-4) of the agreement will be provided to the Procuring Contracting Officer.

H-15 CONTRACTOR EMPLOYEES (NAVAIR 5252.211-9510) (MAY 2011 - VARIATION)

(a) In all situations where Seller personnel status is not obvious, Seller's personnel are required to identify themselves to avoid creating an impression to the public, agency officials, or Congress that such Seller personnel are Government officials. This can occur during meeting attendance, through written (letter or email) correspondence or verbal discussions (in person or telephonic), when making presentations, or in other situations where their contractor status is not obvious to third parties. This list is not exhaustive. Therefore, the Seller's employee(s) shall:

- (1) Not by word or deed give the impression or appearance of being a Government employee;
- (2) Wear appropriate badges visible above the waist that identify them as Seller's employees when in Government spaces, at a Government-sponsored event, or an event outside normal work spaces in support of the contract/order;
- (3) Clearly identify themselves as Seller's employees in telephone conversations and in all formal and informal written and electronic correspondence. Identification shall include the name of the company for whom they work;
- (4) Identify themselves by name, their company name, the name of the prime contractor their company is supporting, as well as the Government office they are supporting when participating in meetings, conferences, and other interactions in which all parties are not in daily contact with the individual contractor employee; and
- (5) Be able to provide, when asked, the full number of the contract/order under which they are performing.

(b) If wearing a badge is a risk to safety and/or security, then an alternative means of identification may be utilized if endorsed by the Contracting Officer's Representative and approved by the Contracting Officer, through LOCKHEED MARTIN.
