

Federal, state and local approvals are in place and work has begun to remove contaminated sediments from Dark Head Cove. The contaminants are located in submerged sediments eight-to-ten feet beneath the water's surface immediately adjacent to Outfall 005, which is located in the bulkhead just south of the foundation of former Building D at Lockheed Martin's Middle River Complex.

Vjg"eqpvc o kpcvgf"ugfk o g o

o

Head Cove. "Securing the remaining approvals